B Flame Dancers

You have to admit this looks hot. Designed solely for dramatic effect, Travis Industries' new Tempest Gas Torch is made for outdoor living spaces; front walkway pillars; a mounting on deck posts or stone pillars; and anywhere else homeowners want to add a touch of fire. The ceramic glass housing directs oxygen to help create the spiral-like presentation. For FREE information, visit <http://pb.ims.ca/5650-135>

C Carrying the Weight of the Roof

Builders looking for the retro-inspired feel of slate on their roofs but not wanting to pay for it should take a gander at Atlas Roofing's Storm-Master Slate shingle line. The new product is part of the Platinum Package in the Atlas Signature Select Roofing Program of complete roofing systems. The shingles carry a lifetime limited warranty and have a full swath of designer colors available. For FREE information, visit <http://pb.ims.ca/5650-136>

D Smart Keys, Safe House

Part of the company's latest security offerings, Kwikset's SmartKey features a proprietary patented side-locking bar that replaces the traditional pin and tumbler designs. SmartKey locks can be easily re-keyed in 30 seconds or less and eliminate many of the hassles and complexities associated with re-keying. For FREE information, visit <http://pb.ims.ca/5650-137>

E Beautiful Stones

The BellaStone Architectural columns made by Crane feature the texture of quarried stone without the need of a professional stonemason on the installation. The new product line uses Crane's low-maintenance dimensional non-masonry stone technology in a durable column design for landscaping, fencing and porch railings. For FREE information, visit <http://pb.ims.ca/5650-138>
